

CELEBRITY MUGSHOT

THE CONCEPT

Taking a comedic look at our favorite celebs not so glamorous photos taken by the people who we never want to run into at 1am: the cops. Whether it's Lindsay Lohan's dazed and confused look in her first of many famous shots or Tiger Woods' drug induced close up - most of these public figures fell from grace for one reason or another, so why not poke fun of it and see if and how they bounced back.

COMEDIC ASPECT

CELEBRITY MUGSHOT will have a rotating, recurring group of three comedians with a special guest "celebrity expert" and host recreating the stars criminal snapshot, through pre-recorded improvised recreations.

The tone of the show will be very light and chatty. There won't be any mocking of the serious drug or mental issues that people were dealing with at the time. Most of these stars are common targets for comedic jabs, so we are just taking them down a notch.
